

How to login to the Less Awkward Hub

 (name of school) families, you have access to the Less Awkward Hub!

Less Awkward, the first company dedicated to making the tween + teen years more predictable and easier to navigate, was created by Dr. Cara Natterson + Vanesa Kroll Bennett. The Hub is Less Awkward's central clearinghouse of information, tools, and resources, covering everything that happens through puberty and adolescence. It's the go-to place to access all of their videos, podcasts, articles, and Less Awkward University, a health + sex ed crash course for parents and trusted adults. Plus, the Hub has a gated AI bot trained on all of it—science-based answers + the conversation starters parents need for raising kids 8-18.

As a companion to the Hub are Less Awkward Clubs, like a book club but better. The Clubs tether to the Less Awkward U courses inside The Hub, and are designed for small, peer-led groups of parents to explore all the awkward-but-essential topics. Gather a small group of parents from your grade, or who share a particular set of issues with you, or who are baffled by the same things you are. Clubs are a great way to build community while feeling more empowered, a reminder that you are not alone! Unlock the Organizer Guide Course once you're in The Hub.
